COMMENTS FROM THE TOWN MANAGER'S OFFICE

The following article was written by the Bethel Auxiliary Police and is self-explanatory. This is a very worthwhile function, and the public must cooperate to achieve the desired results.

The Bethel Auxiliary Police, recently organized and coordinated in conjunction with the Bethel Emergency Committee, has as its first duty the responsibility of executing a Fire Police Plan. The purpose of this plan is to aid the Bethel Fire Department to operate more effectively by eliminating congestion en route to and at the scene of fires.

A roster has been effected so that two authorized police officers are on call both day and night to:

1. Control traffic discipline en route to fires, and
2. To assist the BFD in controlling traffic parking, sightseers, keeping fire lanes open, etc.

It is well to note that these officers will not necessarily travel in "marked" cars. At the scene of a fire these officers will be recognized by white helmets and at night will also have flashlights and as soon as available safety belts of white "Scotch-lite."

The primary purpose of this police unit is to improve the safety and efficiency of the firemen. Keeping a fire lane open on a back road may save a home or a life. Well-meaning onlookers often hamper the firemen in performing their duties, therefore unauthorized persons are asked not to go to fires whenever the fire whistle blows. Wherever possible to enforce, unnecessary traffic will not be allowed to proceed into a fire area.

It is generally known that Bethel is one of the few remaining towns of its size in Oxford County not to have organized this type of police enforcement to protect its citizens from unauthorized speeding traffic and to aid its capable fire department in performing its duties.

This is a matter of considerable concern to our community. We urge everyone to cooperate with these officers in the execution of their duties. Remember, you may help save a life or a home by obeying our law-enforcement officers who are on the job at fires.

Local Congregational Church Illuminated by Group of Flood Lights

Saturday evening the West Parish Congregational Church was spectacularly illuminated as the new flood-lighting system was turned on for the first time.

The system consists of two lights on Colonial lamp poles set up on the front lawn and directed so as to illuminate the steeple and the entire front of the Church. In addition there is a series of lights mounted on the roof to light the belfry area.

The illuminated steeple can be seen from several vantage points on the approaches to Bethel. The best view of it, besides the nearby sights from Elm St. and the downtown area, can be seen by driving down Mill Hill and taking the Lower's Lane road to Route 2 coming from West Bethel. The steeple shows to spectacular advantage on the Route 2 approach from West Bethel, as it glows in the midst of the lights of Gould Academy.

The illuminated steeple will undoubtedly whet the appetite of camera enthusiasts seeking unusual shots. The Trustees or the Minister, the Rev. Clifford W. Lays, would be interested in seeing the results of any photographs taken, in the hope that they might be used for program covers or cards.

Illuminating the steeple has long been a desire of many of the people of the parish. It finally became a fact through the generosity of one of the families of West Parish Church.

Those attending the WSCS Spring Conference at Portland on Thursday were Mrs. Randall Stevens, Mrs. Leslie Lapham, Mrs. S. S. Greenleaf, Mrs. Richard Hamilton, Miss Minnie Wilson, Mrs. Malcolm Mundt.

Mrs. Elwyn Storey and daughter, Mrs. William Andrews, went with Kathryn Ramsell to Winthrop last week to visit Miss Ramsell's birthplace. They also visited relatives in Norway and North Waterford.

There was extensive smoke damage Monday morning at the home of Mrs. Gladys Cross on Vernon Street where a chimney fire made considerable progress before discovery. It was controlled by the fire department which was called at 6:30.

Cloudy cool weather since Sunday has followed two sunny days. Last week until Saturday was very windy which did much to dry the land but was responsible for spreading fires in other areas. Optimists anticipate a warmer period soon.

Over 60 Attend First Luncheon Meeting of Bethel Senior Citizens

More than 60 guests attended the first Senior Citizens' Luncheon which was held at the Methodist Church Tuesday. The social hour before lunch was spent in greeting the guests as they arrived and in renewing old acquaintances.

At noon, following words of welcome, Pastor Richard Hamilton gave thanks and asked God's blessing. A fine luncheon was served by the ladies of the WSCS of the Methodist Church.

Between the main course and the dessert, familiar old-time songs were sung by all, led by Norman Greig with Doris Lord at the piano. A large bouquet, donated by Coburn's Flower Shop, was presented to Emma Robertson, as she was the oldest person present. The group was also favored with a solo by Norman Greig.

The meeting closed by singing "God Be With You 'Til We Meet Again."

This is just a beginning. It is hoped that it will not only be a social group for those who are able to attend but that they will also be able to give cheer and some degree of pleasure to our Senior Citizens who are unable to come to these get-togethers.

The next meeting will be held at Sudbury Inn on May 29. The meeting will begin at 10:30 a. m. Charles E. Heywood is chairman of arrangements for that meeting.

Those who were present at this meeting are requested to keep the song sheets also the name cards to use at the next get-together.

The committee was deeply gratified with the attendance and general feeling of pleasure which prevailed. They wish to thank all who in any way helped to make the get-together possible.

Mrs. John Currier returned home from the Berlin hospital on Tuesday.

Judkins won the mile in 4:35.1 and the 880 in 2:06.9 for the record smashing performances.

Top individual point scorer, however, was Dave Saleeby of Oxford Hills, with 15 points via three victories. The Norway ace won the broad jump with a 20 foot, 5½ inch leap and won the 100 and 220.

Alan Ring of Gould scored 11 points, winning the high jump, high hurdles, and finishing fourth in the broad jump.

Gould won nine events, tied in another in the easy win.

First place winners for Gould, along with Fred Judkins and Alan Ring, were Sam Bartholomew in the shot put, Paul Hamilton in the discus, Dan Grover in the two mile, Corey Brown in the 440, and Brian McCrodden in the 140 yd. low hurdles. approaches, or on the door if boxes are grouped. The box number may be shown on the box. Boxes and supports should be kept painted. Postmasters and rural carriers should ask patrons to group boxes where practicable, particularly where adequate turnouts can be provided.

Mail boxes on both rural and star routes must be located on the right side of the road in the direction of travel of the carriers wherever traffic conditions are such that it would be dangerous for the carriers to drive to the left in order to serve the boxes, or where their doing so would constitute a violation of State or local traffic laws or regulations.

On star routes with box delivery and collection service, where a box is newly installed or a present box is replaced, an approved rural box must be provided.

Self-examination, if it is thorough enough, is nearly always the first step toward change.

ANNUAL MAILBOX IMPROVEMENT PROGRAM

The week of May 21-26 is designated Mailbox Improvement Week. Mailboxes on mounted city routes, rural routes, and star routes with delivery and collection service are to receive attention.

Patrons should be encouraged to furnish mail receptacles which are convenient and safe to use, neat appearing, and protect the mail. Boxes that are properly erected and maintained contribute to efficient, speedy delivery of mail.

Rural route patrons are required to provide mail boxes of the standard approved type. Patrons who are still using boxes of the top-opening type should not be required to discard them, provided they have been continuously in use by the same owner and at same location for many years, they are kept in good serviceable condition, and can be easily served by the carrier from his vehicle.

Names of the owners should be shown on the side of the box visible to the carrier as he

Matthew 7:15-20

By their fruit ye shall know them. (Matthew 7:20.)

The above saying is ideally illustrated in the Apostle Paul's remembrance that Timothy's unfeigned faith dwell first in his grandmother Lois and in his mother Eunice. To my continuing wonder, I note regularly in my own church, and in others I visit from time to time, that there are generally two women to one man in the regular Sunday congregation.

Like the women of the Bible, women of the present day are, as a rule, more earnest in spiritual outlook. Like "waiting Mary" and "bustling Martha," they energetically use their talents in many ways to serve God and their fellowmen.

PRAYER: Father in heaven, we are inspired by the works of faith of famous women mentioned in the Bible. May their examples serve to strengthen our faith. In Jesus' name. Amen.

Ruth's devotion to God shines eternally bright in the lives of David and her other famous descendants. Esther exhibited greatness in relieving the distress of her fellow Jews through her influence on a great king of Persia. The devotion of the women mentioned in the New Testament is well illustrated by the going of "Mary Magdalene and the other Mary to see the sepulchre" on the first Easter morning.

Shell dealers suggest 15 ways to make your car last longer

Shell scientists dedicate their working lives to the care and feeding of automobiles.

They can offer dozens of tips on prolonging the life of what is probably your second biggest investment. Here are some useful samples:

1. Learn to read tail pipe smoke signals. Blue smoke means too much oil is getting into the combustion chambers. Your piston rings may be worn.

Black smoke is an indication of too much gasoline in the air-fuel mixture. Your carburetor may need an adjustment.

White smoke is mostly water vapor. Don't worry about it.

2. Check wheel alignment at least twice a year. An out-of-line wheel can increase tire wear as much as 50 percent. Also, keep your wheels balanced. An unbalanced wheel pounds the tire against the pavement, wearing the tread unevenly.

3. Rotate tires every 6,000 miles. Be sure to include your spare. This helps tires wear evenly, last longer. Your Shell dealer can take care of this for you.

4. Avoid high speeds and save your tires. High speeds increase tire wear drastically — by as much as 80% over normal wear.

5. Use your engine to save your brake linings. Try to avoid hard, sudden braking. When you see you'll have to slow down, take your foot off the accelerator early and let the engine's compression do some of the job.

6. Warm up slowly. Racing an engine to warm it up ages it fast. A short warm-up at moderate speed is good for your car even in summer. But never race your cold engine to warm up. It may damage critical working parts before lubrication can be fully established.

7. Have your engine's spark timing set to proper specifications. Spark timing determines whether your plugs fire at the right instant. With incorrect timing, you can lose power and mileage. Also, your car may knock. And chronic knocking can damage your engine.

8. Use a gasoline that controls knock. If your engine persists in knocking, you may need a gasoline with more anti-knock components, for a higher octane rating.

Super Shell contains all of the anti-knock ingredients required to help your car deliver knock-free performance.

9. Have your oil checked whenever you fill up with gasoline. Oil does not wear out. But it can be lost through leaks or burning. And it does get dirty. Worse yet, oil can become contaminated by combustion by-products — including acid.

Suggestion: use new Shell X-100® Premium Motor Oil. It fights engine acid and four other troubles that can shorten engine life.

10. Change your oil filter element regularly. The filter is designed to catch and hold foreign particles so they can't get into your engine. Replacing the filter element at regular intervals helps your engine last longer.

11. Have your car's cooling system checked in spring and fall. Cooling system rust inhibitors can wear out. Rust, corrosion and sediment may then start to form. In the spring, let your Shell dealer inspect your entire cooling system. When he drains and refills, he'll add a special Cooling System Protector.

In the fall, you get a free cooling system inspection when you have Shellzone anti-freeze put in by your Shell dealer.

12. Get a lubrication job regularly. Dirt and moisture can work into chassis joints and bushings, causing friction and wear. Grease can also eventually pound out, leaving the parts unprotected.

Shell lubrication at regular intervals helps protect those vital parts.

13. Keep door and body panel drain holes clear to foil rust. There are little drain holes at the bottom of body panels and doors. They can get clogged so that the panels actually hold water. Result: Rust forms more easily, can eat through the metal. Make sure drain holes are clear.

14. "Bandage" minor scratches in your car's finish. Until you can have the scratches refinished, keep rust from forming with a coat of touch-up paint or a strip of cellulose tape.

15. Let your Shell dealer help your car last longer. Your car may have cost you thousands of dollars. Treat it carefully. Feed it well. Let your Shell dealer help you on both counts. You will save money — and increase your driving pleasure, too.
